Galway, Irlandia	Polish Community in Galway would like to invite all for the official festival launch and a documentary movie projection "Out of the Ashes". This film is about Warsaw and the spirit of the Polish people who built the greatest architectural project in the history of the world when they re-built the whole city of Warsaw after WWII (the rebuilding of the Historical Old Centre itself was given the highest rating on UNESCO's World Heritage List). The whole city, including over 15,000 buildings, was totally devastated during WWII, which was a disaster almost 4 times larger than Hiroshima. This rebuilding project is a modern miracle of positive energy and teamwork. It helps to create international understanding and cultural appreciation. Please share and invite any friends you think might be interested!!!!	Galway Co. Galway

13	31.05.2019 20.00 – 22.00	303 Squadron – True Story – Movie Screening In Waterford Garter Lane Arts Centre 5 O'Connell St Waterford Co. Waterford	The film „303 Squadron” is a true story of Polish Ace of Space, inspired by the bestseller of Arkady Fiedler with the same title. Polish airmen, initially underestimated and ridiculed, become a legend. As part of the Royal Air Force of the United Kingdom (RAF), they form an elite unit – 303 Squadron, which is unmatched. At a time when every day could be the last, they did not hesitate to perform airborne evolution on the edge of madness. Nobody was flying like them. Their extraordinary skills and extraordinary patriotism can be an example for future generations of Poles, what true heroism is. The film tells not only about the spectacular actions in which they took part in the Battle of Britain, but also shows their private lives. Who they loved, whom they lost and whom they missed. The main roles include: Maciej Zakościelny, Piotr Adamczyk, Jan Wieczorkowski, Antoni Królikowski, Marcin Kwaśny, Krzysztof Kwiatkowski, Anna Prus and Cara Theobald.	Waterford Co. Waterford
